

There's a witch in the woods!
There's a witch in the woods!
There's a haggily scraggily witch in the woods!

Her signs say
"Keep out!"
And
"Buzz off!"
And
"You're toast!"
And some kids say nearby that they've seen a few ghosts!

There's a witch in the woods!
There's a witch in the woods!
There's a big meanie kid eatie witch in the woods!

Say she barks like a dog,
And she looks like a toad,
And her house must be reached
By a long scary road,
And she'll kill us and cook us
And turn us to stew
And she'll serve us and slurp us
As a dinner for two,
And skin us and skew us
And munch on our bones...
I think it'd be best to just leave her alone...
